

Newspapers[™].com

by  ancestry[™]

Distributed by ProQuest into library markets worldwide, Newspapers.com Library Edition is an extensive database that provides online access to 19,000+ (and growing!) historical newspapers from nearly 60 locations in the US and worldwide. Numbering over 100 million pages, the World Collection is a prime resource for genealogy and historical content.

Dating from the late 1600s into the 2010s, Newspapers.com Library Edition contains full and partial runs of regional, state, and local titles from the United States and other countries.

Invaluable for researchers, historians, genealogists, teachers and students, Newspapers.com Library Edition provides greater opportunities for longitudinal and comparative analysis of historical events and people, and is a great source of information for genealogists. With ongoing updates and new content continually being added, there's always more to be discovered.

Newspapers.com Library Edition - Home Screen

The screenshot shows the home screen of the Newspapers.com Library Edition. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'SEARCH', 'BROWSE', 'PAPERS', and 'CLIPPINGS'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'Search a keyword or name' and a magnifying glass icon. To the right of the search bar is a button that says 'Add more info'. Below the search bar is a location pin icon and the text 'See papers by location'. On the left side, there is a 'Date Range' widget with a bar chart showing activity from 1700 to 2017. Below the date range is a 'HELP WANTED' button and a link to 'Get Started'. In the center, there are three columns of newspaper listings. Each listing includes a thumbnail image of a newspaper page, the newspaper's name, and the number of pages. On the right side, there is a 'Recent Clippings' section with several clipping cards, each showing a thumbnail of a clipping and its title. Callout boxes are overlaid on the screen: one at the top left says 'Basic four search tools'; one at the top center says 'Date range widget for narrowing by year'; one at the top right says 'Keyword, name, paper location, and date search bar'; one at the bottom left says 'Create a free, personal login for saving clips, searches, etc.'; one at the bottom center says 'Papers in your specific collection'; and one at the bottom right says 'Recent clippings from Newspaper.com users'.

Options for narrowing search

Clicking on a paper's name will take you to the entire collection of pages for that paper.

Name of paper, years of coverage, number of pages

There are a lot of options for browsing all papers in the collection or narrowing to location, date range, keyword of paper (farm, for example), etc. It is also a simple way to see how much coverage (number of pages and years) a particular title has.

Clicking on a newspaper's name will take you into an overview of the paper including recently clipped articles, ability to search within or browse, who has provided access to the paper (such as a state's historical society) and a link to their website, an image of date ranges, a calendar to help define your search, nearby papers, and any personal users interested in the paper.

Newspapers.com Library Edition - Article Viewer

The screenshot shows the 'Article Viewer' interface for a newspaper article. At the top, there is a search bar with 'veterans' entered and a 'Find' button. To the right of the search bar are buttons for 'PRINT/SAVE', 'CLIP', 'SHARE', and 'Save to Ancestry'. Below the search bar, there is a navigation bar with page numbers from 21 to 39. The main content area displays a newspaper article with several callout boxes:

- Options for interacting with article. (Points to the top navigation buttons)
- Will default to original search term OR new search term can be added to perform a specific search withing this paper. (Points to the search bar)
- Search terms appear in yellow throughout page. (Points to the word 'veterans' highlighted in yellow in the article text)
- Toggle between filmstrip viewer available or hidden. (Points to the filmstrip navigation controls)
- Move through pages in paper with ease. (Points to the page navigation bar)
- Resize image, invert colors, turn page, make full screen, or submit feedback to Newspapers.com (Points to the bottom right corner)

Tips:

- You do not need a personal account to view articles but to interact with them (clip, share, save to Ancestry), you will need to set up a free Newspaper.com personal account. Ancestry interaction also requires an Ancestry.com free account.
- Options for saving and printing include .jpeg (image) or .pdf (portable document file). You can save or print a page or part of a page.
- Different Internet browsers (Internet Explorer, Chrome, Firefox, Edge, Safari, etc.) perform download article actions differently. Know how it works so you don't feel like you've lost a download. Consider saving to a flashdrive or cloud account if you use a public computer.
- The back button of your Internet browser will get you back to a previous screen.

Newspapers.com Library Edition - Clippings

The screenshot shows the 'My Clippings' page for user Jennifer Cornell. The page has a dark grey header with navigation links: HOME, SEARCH, BROWSE, PAPERS, CLIPPINGS. Below the header, there's a search bar and a 'Sort' dropdown. The main content area displays a grid of clipping cards. Each card includes a thumbnail, a title, the newspaper name, date, and a 'Clip' button. A 'Sign in' modal is open in the bottom right corner, showing the user's email (jennifer.cornell@proq), a password field, and a 'Sign In' button. There are also links for 'Sign in with Facebook' and 'Keep me signed in'.

Callouts:

- Dark grey All Clippings shows items users have clipped/saved recently. (Points to the 'All Clippings' filter)
- White My Clippings will prompt your personal login to show your clippings. (Points to the 'Sign in' modal)
- Clippings can be searched by keyword or name. (Points to the search bar)
- Mousing over a clipping will bring up a set a new choices. (Points to a clipping card)
- A red title indicates a personal user has named this clipping in their own collection. (Points to a clipping with a red title)

- To clip an article, just click the "Clip" button in the viewer, move and resize the clipping box around the article you want to clip, and, if you want, add a title or description for the clipping.
- Clips are automatically saved to "My Clippings". You can get to this list by clicking the arrow next to your member name in the upper right of the page and selecting "My Clippings."
- Share clippings by email or social media. Shared clips are viewable by everyone. You can also use a clipping to add a comment or additional information to a page or story.
- By default, clippings you make are "public". You can make a clipping private by clicking the "settings" icon () and unchecking the box next to "Public." You can also change the default setting to not public.
